

THE ARN ROOM

The Arn Room takes its name from Arn Hill on the northwest side of town. Once the site of Iron Age long barrows, the picturesque hill with its adjoining downs is now the home of West Wilts Golf Club.

The Arn Room is situated next to the kitchen and bar, and is suitable for both meetings and functions. For larger events it can be combined with the Copheap Room to provide an area double in size, and can also be combined with the Cley Room if a stage area is needed. It is fitted with Internet facilities.

THE COPHEAP ROOM

The Copheap Room is named after the wooded hill on the north side of the town, one of Warminster's favourite landmarks.

The room is suitable for meetings or functions. For larger events it can be combined with the Arn Room to provide an area double in size, and can also be combined with the Cley Room if a stage area is needed. It is fitted with Internet facilities.

THE CLEY ROOM

The Cley Room is named after one of the area's most visible landmarks, the Iron Age hill fort of Cley Hill two miles distant from Warminster on the west side.

The Cley Room is most suitable for meetings and presentations. It is located in the old stage area of the building and has a mezzanine position that can be accessed by means of stairs or a platform lift. It has roof lights, and is fitted with Internet facilities.
